2020 · WHAT ISSUES SHOULD I CONSIDER WHEN ESTABLISHING MY CHARITABLE GIVING STRATEGY?

FOUNDATIONAL ISSUES	YES	NO
Have you identified what motivates you to give?
Do you need to confirm that your giving is matched to your values?
Do you need to establish a giving plan?  If so, consider creating a plan to help you decide rationally, make impactful gifts, and respond when solicited for support.
Do you need to conduct due diligence of a charity?  If so, consider the following:
Review the charity's mission, leadership, financial health, results, etc.  Understand how your gift would be used (e.g., overhead, general fund, specific causes).
CASH FLOW ISSUES	YES	NO
Do you need to quantify how much you can afford to give?
Is your income fluctuating this year?  If so, consider how this impacts your tax incentives and ability to make (or forego making) deductible charitable gifts.
<ul> <li>Do you want to make a substantial gift to a charity during your lifetime, but also want an income stream for yourself or another noncharitable beneficiary?</li> <li>If so, consider the following:</li> <li>If the charity you wish to benefit offers a charitable gift annuity (CGA), you can give cash, securities, and possibly other assets in exchange for a fixed stream of income from the charity for your lifetime. (Note the gift tax consequences if the noncharitable annuitant is not yourself.)</li> <li>A charitable remainder annuity trust (CRAT) can make annual payments of a fixed amount of the trust's assets to you or a noncharitable beneficiary for a term of years (not to exceed 20) or lifetime(s), with the remainder passing to the charitable beneficiaries.</li> <li>(continue on next column)</li> </ul>

> Do you have a traditional IRA, and are you over age 70.5?  If so, consider making a Qualified Charitable Contribution (QCD) of up to $100,000, which would be excluded from taxable incom If you are age 72 or over, a QCD can count toward satisfying your RMD.
> Do you have time and/or skills that you can contribute? If so, you may not take a deduction for the value of your service: however, you may be able to deduct unreimbursed expenses th you incur as a direct result of services you perform.
TAX ISSUES	YES	NO
<ul> <li>Did/will you make charitable gifts this year?</li> <li>If so, consider the following:</li> <li>Any cash gift must be substantiated by financial statements or written confirmation from the charity. Cash gifts of $250 or more must be supported by a contemporaneous written acknowledgment (CWA) from the charity.</li> <li>Generally, noncash gifts of more than $500 require a CWA and the filing of Form 8283. Noncash gifts of more than $5,000 must also be supported by qualified appraisal (unless an exception applies, e.g., for publicly traded securities, vehicles, etc.). For noncash gifts exceeding $500,000, the qualified appraisal must be filed with your 1040.</li> </ul>	ore d ist
Did you receive anything of value in exchange for a charitable gift?  If so, you may take a deduction to the extent that your gift exceed the FMV of the goods or services you received in return. A charit must provide to you a written disclosure if you make a quid proquo gift of $75 or more.
<ul> <li>Do you want to make completed gifts for income tax purpose this year, but delay/spread the distributions to charities over multiple years?</li> <li>If so, consider the following:</li> <li>A donor advised fund (DAF) allows you to make a gift and take (continue on next column)</li> </ul>	er immediate charitable deduction while delaying delivery of the funds to the charities of your choosing. ■ You can use a DAF to "bunch" several years of gifts in one tax year, taking advantage of the itemized charitable deduction when your gifts might have otherwise been covered by the standard deduction. You can then spread the grants from your DAF over future years to smooth the impact to the charities.

<ul> <li>Do you need help determining the deductibility of your gift(s)? If so, consider the following:</li> <li>■ Charitable gifts are itemized deductions (deductible to the extent that they exceed the standard deduction). Note: The CARES Act implemented a special rule for 2020 allowing an above-the-line charitable deduction of $300.</li> <li>■ If your charitable gifts are less than 20% of your AGI, you can generally take a full deduction. Above this threshold, there are several deduction limitation categories, including 60%, 50%, and 30% of your AGI, which may apply depending upon the nature of the charitable sift and base ficient.</li> </ul>
